Victoria Lodge Apartments

Self Catering Apartments on the Isle of Wight

For a warm, relaxed, comfortable and clean atmosphere, look no further than the Victoria Lodge

General Information

Victoria Lodge is located South-East of the island, in the exciting holiday town known as Sandown. Sandown has it's very own Pier and many other attractions, such as ITV's Tiger Zoo and the Dinosaur Museum. We're just five to ten minutes walk from it all.

Victoria Lodge is located just a minute from the 3 mile long sandy beach, local shops and amenities, yet enjoys a relatively quiet position in Victoria road. There's plenty to do and see locally, but the island is also host to many other attractions and events. For the latest up-to-date information, then please visit www.islandbreaks.co.uk (the official site of Isle of Wight tourism).

The Isle of Wight measures 23miles by 13 miles and is separated from the mainland by 6 miles of water known as the Solent. The island has many historical connections dating back to the Roman times. There is plenty to see amongst the many geographical wonders, castles, palaces, parks and gardens, many of which have royal connections.

Victoria Lodge is open all year round for short or long term lets. Pricing is dependant on your length of stay and the time of year. Our most up-to-date pricing can be found on our website www.victorialodgeapartments.co.uk. Alternatively give us a call on 01983 403 209 and we'll do the best we can to meet your needs.
